Before you leave though, I wanted to express my appreciation for serving with you over the last four (4) years. We have not agreed on all topics, but as you have said, Bill, we have "seven different personalities on the Board of Commissioners" and I can appreciate your stand on topics even if I don't agree. You both have served Columbus County for many years and now you deserve an opportunity to take another path in life. May God stand by your side in the future endeavors that you encounter. Bill, I guess that it is appropriate that you chair this last meeting since I haven't given you an opportunity this year.

Please keep Columbus County in your prayers and heart. Thank you for your service.

James Prevatte
