

On motion of D. W. Merritt and second of C. D. Garrell the following order was passed: That the property in Chadbourn Township being formerly known as the Brown property containing 42 acres, and listed in the name of Jennie G. White, be sold to I. C. Jordon and wife, S. L. Jordon, for a consideration of $2500.00. $1000.00 of said sum to be paid in cash and deed of trust to be taken for balance of $1500.00 covering the portion of the White property on the West side of the Tabor and Chadbourn Highway and being 16 acres, and also property containing 22 acres in Williams Township. The said notes are to become due on the first day of May, 1933, 1934, 1935, 1936, and 1937, in denominations of $300.00 each, interest to be payable annually.

The 42 acres Brown land, now White land, was foreclosed and bid in by Columbus County. It is hereby directed that Columbus County transfer its bid to I. C. Jordon and wife, S. L. Jordon, and that deed be made by Julian D. Lewis, trustee in the deed of trust of Jesse C. White and wife, Jennie G. White to Julian D. Lewis, trustee, for the Board of County Commissioners of Columbus County.

The meeting was then adjourned until October 25, 1932.
