Hallsboro, N.C.
June 25, 1943

Dear Sir,
As the County has been helping me some
and I fail to get any help this month I thought I would write you and get you to look after it for me as I am not able to come over there myself. I got $6.00 the first of May and I have not got any since you know that ever
things is high so $6.00 can't go far, and I haven't got no other way to get anything so I would be glad you would look after it for me as quick as you can, and am in need of help, and I want you to please have them
help me over month.

Rachel Barefoot.
