

A Civil Defense meeting was held in the County Commissioners Office on July 14, 1958 at 10:30 A. M. The meeting was called by and conducted by W. H. Dawson, Jr. retired Colonel from Fayetteville and R. E. Smith, retired mayer of Fayetteville both working out of Raleigh.

Those attending the meeting from this county as follows:

- D. P. Ward, Chairman Board of County Commissioners
- Leo L. Fisher, Chairman of Red Cross Disaster Committee
- John Wilson, County Civil Defense Director
- Wade L. White, Whiteville Police Chief
- H. G. May field, Civil Defense Worker

Josephine F. Ray, Clerk

The county was given a prototype plan for North Carolina support counties to use in forming plans for such emergencies.

The basic plan outlines the counties support mission, a general plan for accomplishing the mission, and the requirements in supplies needed for survival,

The leaders urged immediate action at county level to fill out the plan and get it working.

Upon motion the meeting was adjourned until July 25, 1958 at 8 P. M.
