

The Columbus County Board of Commissioners held a public meeting in the Superior Courtroom of the Columbus County Courthouse on May 28, 1970 at 8:00 P.M. to discuss solid waste disposal in Columbus County.

The following Commissioners were present:

H. J. Watts, Chairman, T. E. Burns, W. O. Johnson, and Edward W. Williamson. Betty S. Williamson, County Clerk, and R. C. Soles, Jr., County Attorney were also present.

Chairman H. J. Watts presided at the meeting. Mr. Charles Raper, County Extension Chairman, acted as master of ceremonies, and introduced the following guests who spoke briefly:

- Mr. Oddell Strickland, Sanitarian, State Board of Health
- Mr. Don Ashton, Sanitarian, State Board of Health
- Mr. Biscoe Allsbrook, Adm. Horry County Health Department
- Mr. James Blanton, Loris, S. C.
- Mr. Marvin Lewis, Public Relations, R. E. A.

After an interesting question and answer session, Mayor Whitley stated in behalf of interested citizens of Columbus County, he would like to ask that the County Board of Commissioners request the State Board of Health to prepare a proposed plan for Columbus County, at no cost, on Solid Waste Disposal. All Commissioners present stated this would be taken up at the next Board meeting.

APPROVED:
