The Board again discussed budget request from various departments. They agreed to allow a 10% raise in salaries for county employees. The Public Safety Commission Budget was discussed and as required by law, if requested, 5 additional employees were allowed. The Board granted a total of $144,180 to the Commission to be used for salaries, which would give the present employees a 10% raise and a surplus to make adjustments for classifications if the Commission so desires.

The Chairman was asked to contact Howard Stanley regarding the addition of the duties of Occupational Safety Health Officer to his present duties, and report to the Board at the next meeting. Other decisions were made that are to be incorporated into the Budget.

Upon motion the meeting adjourned until 8:00 p.m., May 31, 1974 to continue studying the budget.
