FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

There was news media coverage in the Spring of 2005 that could have been construed as suggesting that Marva Scott, Director of Social Services for Columbus County, had been involved in possible wrongdoing and was the subject of an investigation. An investigation was completed in September of 2005 with the determination that there was no evidence whatsoever implicating Marva Scott in any wrongdoing. Therefore, any suggestion or inference to the contrary were and are incorrect.

In light of the forgoing, Marva Scott, Director of the Columbus County Department of Social Services, the Columbus County Board of County Commissioners, the Columbus County Board of Social Services, Sheriff Chris Batten and County Commissioner Bill Memory today announced the settlement of a lawsuit filed by Ms. Scott in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina, arising from the suspension of Ms. Scott in April, 2005, from her position as Director of Social Services amid allegations of financial wrongdoing at the Department of Social Services.

“Beginning in the early part of 2005, I received information that I believed warranted further investigation,” said Sheriff Chris Batten. “In my effort to have that done, I may have made statements that suggested that Ms. Scott did something wrong” said Sheriff Batten. “There is no evidence to suggest that Marva Scott or any other employee of the Department of Social Services mishandled any funds, destroyed evidence or was involved in any other improprieties that warrants the attention of this office or any other law enforcement agency.”

Ms. Scott said that she was relieved that the matter had been amicably resolved. “I have always faithfully performed my duties as the Director of Social Services, and look forward to continuing to do that. I believe that the resolution of this case absolves not only me, but my staff. I trust that my relationship with everyone involved will continue to focus on the best interests of the citizens of Columbus County,” said Scott. “I want to thank my family, friends, staff, church and other members of the community for their support during this trying time. But I’m now ready to put this all behind me, and am gratified that the other parties to this case have also chosen to put it behind them.”

September 12, 2006

This agreement must be accepted and agreed upon by the Columbus County Board of Commissioners and the Columbus County Board of Social Services before the agreement becomes effective.
